Preschool Photo/Video/Website Release Form

(Please type or print all information in blue or black ink)

Sandia View Christian Preschool (SVCP) makes an effort to promote the positive activities, honors and work of our students in our internal celebrations as well as in our community marketing efforts. We do this using a variety of media formats and publications, including but not limited to brochures, postcards, displays, website and slide shows. An essential component of each of these formats and publications is images of our students. Images have tremendous power to engage online users and readers. Publicizing a student's work will encourage our students to strive for excellence in his or her schoolwork as well as provide a glimpse of the educational experience at SVCP. During the course of the school year, there will be times when pictures or videos of your child may be taken that support their education, promote community service or encourage positive behavior. These photos and/or videos include but are not limited to field trips, sporting events, special programs and events, along with normal classroom routines.

I understand that any picture or video of a student posted to the website whether individual, group or team will not include personal information. Some of the pictures or videos may be action or candid shots taken during participation in an event while other pictures or videos may be staged for specific purposes. Group shots such as class or team pictures posted to the website may be identified by team or class name, but no individual names will be included. In some cases, the initials of a student might be included in such media so that members of the SVCS and SVCP family might celebrate the accomplishments of the student's work. I have been informed that with my permission below, an image of and the work of my child may be used in the various media publications of Sandia View Christian School and Preschool. I understand the conditions under which images and students' work may be used.

Yes - I hereby consent to authorize SVCP permission to use my child's photo, video or class work/art for the purposes mentioned above. I understand and agree that SVCP may use these photos, videos and class work/art in subsequent school years unless I revoke this authorization in writing to SVCP.

No - I withhold permission for SVCP to use my child's photo, video or class work/art for any SVCP media as mentioned above.

Parents know who they should go to when their child is sick, however pediatrician visits are just as important for healthy children. Some of the benefits of well-child visits include:

- Prevention. Your child gets scheduled immunizations to prevent illness and you can ask your pediatrician about nutrition and safety in the home and at school.
- Tracking growth and development. See how much your child has grown in the time since your last visit and talk with your doctor about your child's development. You can discuss your child's milestones, social behaviors and learning.
- Raising concerns. Make a list of topics you want to talk about with your child's pediatrician such development, behavior, sleep, eating or relations with other family members. Present your top three to five questions or concerns to the pediatrician at the start of the visit.
- Team approach. Regular visits create strong, trustworthy relationships among pediatrician, parent and child. The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) supports well-child visits as a way for pediatricians and parents to serve the needs of children. This team approach helps develop optimal physical, mental and social health of a child.

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) developed a set of comprehensive health guidelines for well-child care, called Bright Futures, for pediatricians to follow. Each well-child visit has an age-appropriate pre-visit questionnaire. The questions focus on developmental milestones, nutrition, safety, your child and family's emotional well-being, and recommendations from the AAP.

Each visit includes a complete physical exam. At this exam, the health care provider will check the child's growth and development in order to find or prevent problems. The provider will record your child's height, weight, and other important information. Hearing, vision, and other screening tests will be part of some visits. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends your child be seen for a well-child check at: 30 months, 3 years and 4 years.

My child, _____, has had a well-child check or health screening on _____.
_____. This well-child check included a vision, dental and hearing screening.

Preschool Essential Oils

(Please type or print all information in blue or black ink)

As you know, school can be hard and stressful for many of our young students. This year one of my goals is to help reduce stress and anxiety in my class in an effort to make learning more fun and effective. One way to do this is by using essential oils in a diffuser in the classroom.

Essential oils have been reported to positively affect mood and memory. Many also have antibacterial properties as well. Below I have listed the oils I would like to use along with their properties. These oils are certified pure therapeutic grade (CPTG) from a company called doTERRA and Young Living. They have no synthetic chemicals or pesticides and are taken from organically grown plants. Please review this list and let me know if you have any questions or concerns regarding the use of these oils in our room. I would also need to know if your student has any allergies to any of the plants from which these oils are taken.

Single Oils

- Lavender: This oil may help with anxiety, mental clarity, & nervous tension.
- Thieves: This helps with deep cleaning child-prone areas without harsh chemicals (tables, sinks, chairs).
- Lemon: This oil may help cleanse and purify the air of airborne odors.

Oil Blends

- On-Guard: This oil blend contains wild orange, clove bud, cinnamon bark, eucalyptus radiata, and rosemary. It helps protect the body against the onset of flu, colds, and viruses.

All oil information was taken from Modern Essentials: A Contemporary Guide to the Therapeutic Use of Essential Oils published by Abundant Health, 2011.

Consent for Use of Oils in Ms. Razon's Classroom

- I have read the above information and do not have any concerns or questions about the use of essential oils in the Preschool classroom.
